

Law firms are going digital.
So are legal language services.

Advanced technologies, processes & systems

Quality you can trust

Best-in-class service

Working with professional linguists for over 45 years

Indispensable

Last year over 500 law firms relied on us.

Quality you can trust

Quality is about doing things at a high standard on a consistent basis. "Quality information coming in" is the best way to get "quality results going out". That's why it's important to share as much information as possible with us early in the order process.

Personalized service

We take the time to understand the pressures you are under, how you like to work (via phone, e-mail or both), and exactly what you expect of us. Our goal is 100% customer satisfaction.

Quick turnaround

Our coordinators have everything they need to complete your order as quickly as possible.

- Advanced IT order management systems;
- Efficient client communication processes;
- Deep pool of professional linguists to choose from.

Certified to the world's highest standards

We meet the highest industry standards for language service providers and are also ISO 9001:2008 registered (measurements based quality management systems). Visit our website for more information.

Translations you can trust.

You want your translations to accurately communicate the facts and to contain the correct legal terminologies and nuances. We consistently deliver the results you need in more than 180 languages. Our track record speaks for itself.

Legal documents we translate:

- Annual reports
- Contracts
- Criminal matters
- Divorce decrees
- Immigration
- Labour documents
- Legal documents
- Medical reports
- MSDS
- Patents & trademarks

The key to quality

We choose experienced legal translators whose work is checked by a second linguist. Plus, we are audited and certified to follow industry standards as well as our own best practices.

Interpreters matched to your needs.

You don't want just any interpreter, you want the right interpreter for the situation. Our quality assurance process helps to ensure that you are assigned an interpreter with the relevant subject matter, knowledge and qualifications you require.

Common settings and natures:

- Arbitrations
- Civil trials
- Cross examinations
- Discoveries
- Examinations under oath
- Mediations
- Pre-hearings & hearings
- Small claims courts
- Statements
- Defense medicals

Our customer service is second to none

Our team of coordinators have several decades of combined experience. You can always get a live person on the phone that will listen to your needs and hand-pick the right interpreter for your order.

Notarized Translation

An Affidavit of Verification is sworn and signed by the original translator as well as our Notary Public.

Legal documents and medical certificates require an Affidavit of Verification.

When a notarized translation is required we will deliver two printed hard copies of your translation, one for filing, and one for your own records. Additional copies provided on request.

Face-to-face Consecutive Interpreting

Consecutive interpreting is bidirectional and takes place on-site to facilitate communication between speakers of different languages.

We carefully select interpreters with the appropriate experience and credentials to meet your needs.

Undeniable.

Mastering the use of language services is mandatory in today's world.

Continual growth in Canadian multiculturalism.

According to recent census data, 21% of Canada's population spoke a non-official language as their mother tongue. Over 13% did not speak English with native fluency. Statistics Canada projects that immigration will be the primary factor in population growth – these numbers will only increase.

Business is global.

Globalisation began over twenty years ago as a result of the sudden increase in the exchange of knowledge, trade and capital around the world. Momentum was driven by technological innovations in wireless communication and the internet — which now connects all countries, big and small.

Our "Insight Series" of documents will fill your knowledge gaps.
